DESCRIPTION

This is an interesting kind of battery holder, usually you'll see ones that are designed for holding like AAA's or something. This battery holder is designed to clip into and hold camcorder

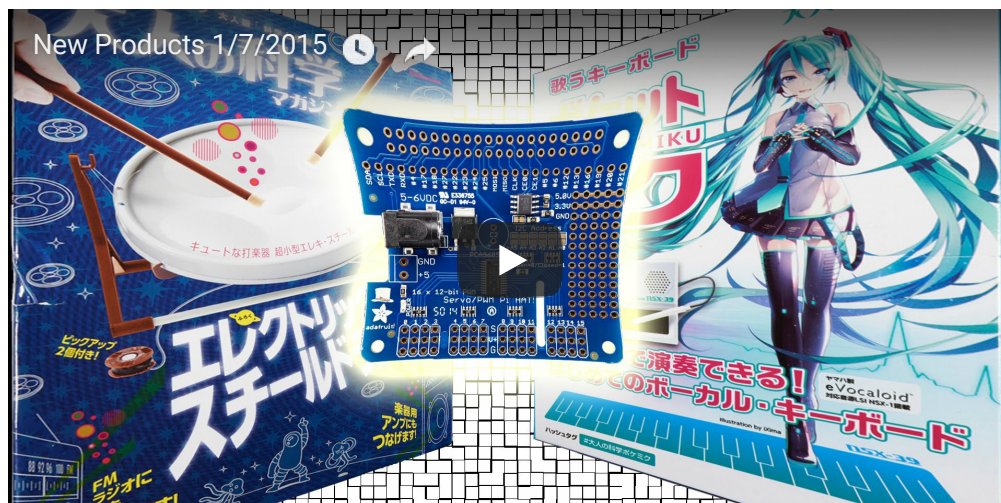

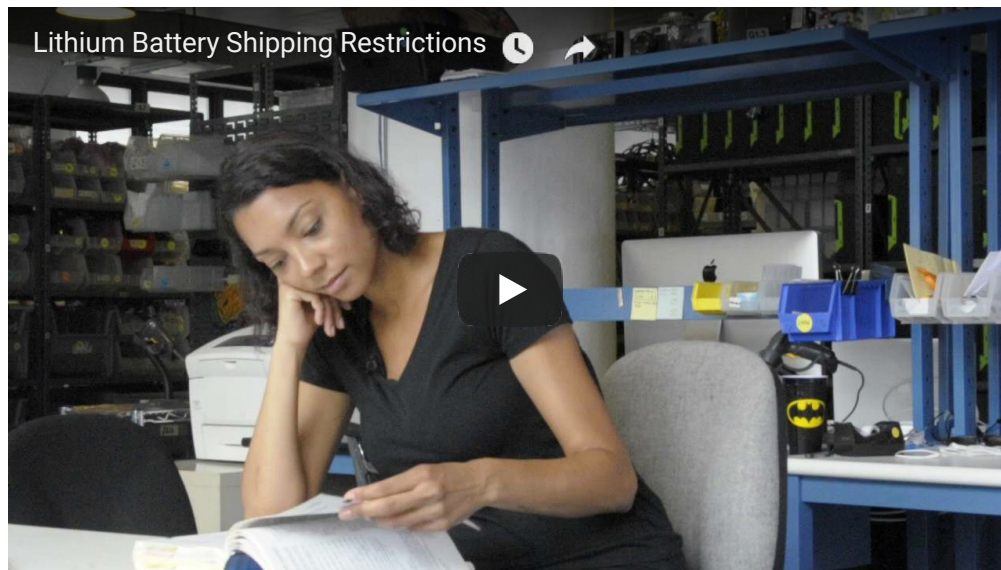

Downloaded from Arrow.com - Common Gateway to the rechargable Lithium-Ion Battery Pack (7.2V, 1800mAh). We also have a holder for the SONY NP-Fxx series and Panasonic CGR-D28/CGA-D54 series.

Comes with just the plastic holder, six screws, and cable assembly. No battery is included! Snap your batteries in and out as necessary, and use the charger that comes with your batteries for topping up

It has four 3mm diameter mounting holes so you can install this easily to your project.

Please note! This is just a battery connector/holder - Battery not included.

TECHNICAL DETAILS

- Mounting Hole Distance: 77mm x 55mm / 3" x 2.2"
- Weight (just the holder, no screws): 20g
